

Broadening Horizons

For our study of History to have real meaning, we endeavour to give students an experience of the subject that goes beyond the classroom. Where possible students are offered opportunities to enrich their learning through first hand experiences, whether this be a visit to places such as France, Belgium or Auschwitz, an experience or the ability to hear a first-hand witness testimony to allow them to see that History is real, is all around us and has a direct impact on how we live our lives today. Allowing our students to see that History is a subject which opens up doors to many career opportunities is also an integral part of our students' preparation for life beyond school.

Careers

Students who have studied A Level History go on to study a variety of subjects at higher level including History, Law, Business, Media and Politics. A History qualification is highly prized by education establishments and employers alike as it teaches data analysis, report writing, critical thinking and research skills.

Immerse Yourself

Students will be expected to buy the core textbooks for both components of the course. There is also a library within the department for students to access as they will also be required to do some wider reading around the subjects throughout the two years.

What is Antisemitism?

This video addresses the ways Jews have been vilified over the centuries, and why it poses a threat today to Jews and non-Jews alike.

Curriculum Intent

“How we got to now” is the overriding aim of the History secondary curriculum at Wickersley Partnership Trust (WPT). Through a shared understanding and knowledge of our past history, we aim to give our students the ability to understand who they are and their place in the world. We aim to inspire a love of learning and the ability to ask questions.

Our History curriculum allows our students to ask and develop perceptive questions to help them understand the past and the present. In an ever-changing world, History allows our students to look to past examples, learn from them and ensure that as citizens we do not make the same mistakes that those before us may have done.

The History curriculum aims to give pupils a coherent knowledge and understanding of Britain’s past and that of the wider world. It inspires students’ curiosity to know more about the past.

Teaching equips pupils to ask enquiring questions, think critically, weigh evidence, sift arguments, and develop perspective and judgement.

History helps pupils to understand the complexity of people’s lives, the process of change, the diversity of societies and relationships between different groups, as well as their own identity and the challenges of their time.

Have your say!

At WPT we’re always looking for feedback. If you have any thoughts/opinions on this Curriculum Newsletter, its content or the curriculum in general, please scan the QR code to fill out a short feedback form.

Year 13 Curriculum

History is delivered via two 80 minute lessons per week. In Year 13, we look at the following topics:

Component 1: Breadth Study – The Tudors: England, 1485-1603

Part two: England: turmoil and triumph, 1547-1603

This course focuses on Henry VIII’s children – Edward VI, Mary Tudor and Elizabeth I.

Students will consider the problems of succession, relations with foreign powers, religious and social changes during their reigns.

Component 2: Depth Study – Democracy and Nazism: Germany, 1918-1945

Part two: Nazi Germany, 1933-1945

This course focuses on Hitler’s consolidation of power, the Terror State and economic and social policies.

Students will also look at the Racial State, anti-Semitism and the treatment of Jews. They will finish off looking at the impact of the Second World War.

Component 3: Historical Investigation – Personal study of approx. 100 years

Students also have to complete a personal study based on a topic of student’s choice. This has to take the form of a question in the context of approximately 100 years. This will culminate in a 3500-4500 word essay completed by Christmas of Year 13. Current topic choices are:

- Causes of the Russian Revolution
- Fall of the Roman Empire
- Nationalism as a cause of conflict 1815-1914
- Growth of universal suffrage in Britain
- European witchcraft in the 15th and 16th centuries

THE HISTORY WAY

We use historical examples to support our points

We always try to look at the historical context of events

WE UNDERSTAND HOW THE PAST CONTRIBUTES TO OUR FUTURE

We strive to incorporate history structures in our written work

WE ALWAYS TRY TO USE KEY HISTORY WORDS IN CLASS DISCUSSION

We are willing to develop our historical learning beyond the classroom

We are motivated to investigate the past & become young historians

We use analytical steps when investigating historical evidence

SUBJECT WAYS

The History Way

The History Way is followed in all of our lessons. It is designed to help students become young subject specialists and has two main purposes: to teach students the vital skills needed to achieve their full potential, and to demonstrate how History relates to the wider world.
